Our great aim in having a tent instead of using the house of worship is for the convenience of the busy people who can drop in on time and be back to business as quickly—then it will be cool, and besides you are not expected to wear your coat.

The singer will want everybody who will sing to meet on Saturday night and rehearse. We should like a large chorus. Mr. Culpepper holds town meetings instead of confining himself to his own denomination, and is just as eager to help your husband, girl, or boy in your church as if it were his own. There will not be an evangelical church here that is not helped by this wonderful preacher.

We are specially anxious to have you from the neighboring towns, and communities. Come and help fill the big tent. There will be four in the evangelistic party—preacher, singer, pianist and gospel worker.

We extend our sympathies to the families of Hon. W. W. Sanders and W. E. Sanders on account of the death of their father, who was buried at Columbia, Ala. He was the youngest and best poised man to be over eighty, we have ever known. And through all these years he has used them in great usefulness to his community as well as his family.

We also extend sympathies to Mr. and Mrs. George Swain whose little child toddled out of their home into the great beyond and was buried last Friday.

Keep our meeting in mind to begin on July 6.—If you miss a single sermon you will be a great loser.

Marketing Campaign In Full Swing In Coffee.

This morning, Monday, we begin a drive to get our farmers enrolled in their co-operative marketing organization, and these men from Montgomery office of the Farm Bureau will spend the week in Coffee. On account of the poultry specialists being busy just this time, we have put off the egg sign up for a few weeks. The egg pool will start in October instead of August as was first contemplated, and we will have plenty of time to get our quota by that time, and at the same time get the help and assistance of the poultry specialists that are now working in other counties.

DON'T LET THE WEEVIL DESTROY A GOOD COTTON PROSPECT, SAYS COUNTY AGENT MARKETING CAMPAIGN IN FULL SWING

At this writing Coffee County has a very fine prospect for crops of all kinds, but favorable weather for a good crop from now till August would play havoc with the cotton crop, due to weevil damage. At present there are few fields that have anything like a 10 percent infestation of weevils, that is, ten squares punctured out of every 100 squares in the field, but within another week there will be a new crop of weevils hatched out that can do damage in a day amounting to millions of dollars. So we recommend that you do two things to prevent serious loss to your splendid prospect for cotton crop thru weevil damage—First, go in your field and select several stalks of cotton at different places and spots in the field; strip these stalks of every square bloom and boll; drop them in a vessel and go back to the house and very carefully look them over. If ten out of every hundred are punctured then we ask you to do the second thing to protect your prospect—Come to town or write this office to get you a dusting gun or machine and some calcium arsenate dust. The Farm Bureau will buy these necessary materials for you at the lowest possible cost. Then when you have all your poisoning material ready, go into the field early or late in the afternoon when there is no wind and apply about seven pounds of the dust per acre. Follow this every four days until three applications have been given, and we believe you will have the weevils in check. CAUTION. Do not apply pokeweed until you have a ten percent infestation. Later on you may need this expensive poison and there is no use in wasting it when you do not need it. Save the poison until you catch the weevils in numbers and then kill them.

Mr. Dismuke of New Brockton reports that about three weeks ago he had a 50 percent infestation in a three acre patch of new-ground cotton with weeds on two sides, and after going over once with the dusting machine as outlined above, a number of us who visited the field last Wednesday morning could hardly find a sign of weevil damage. It will pay to poison cotton for weevils if you have any weevils.

While kneeling at the side of his automobile, a passing car drove up close to Jacobs, hitting him and knocking him up against his own car.

COOPERATIVE EGG MARKETING DRIVE GOES OVER QUOTA

Auburn, Ala., July 7th.—The necessary number of hens has been signed, assuring a co-operative egg marketing association in Alabama. The minimum goal was 100,000 hens, and during the first four weeks of the campaign this number was exceeded by 30,000 to 40,000, with indications that a quarter of a million will be signed during the charter membership campaign, which will end July 15.

The new marketing organization, which will be known as the Alabama Farm Bureau Poultry Association, will be the third organization under the Farm Bureau auspices. It has State headquarters in the State Office of the Farm Bureau in Montgomery. With 100,000 hens it should handle 500,000 dozen eggs annually, because the average Alabama hen lays five dozen eggs each year. If a quarter of a million hens are signed, as is now indicated, the association should handle over 1,000,000 dozen eggs each twelvemonth.

Elimination of waste, which is bound to occur under the present system of handling eggs, will be one of the big advantages of co-operative marketing. An official estimate is that 17 percent of the eggs laid by Alabama hens are never consumed because of improper handling, and also because of careless production methods and practices, which should be changed by the new system.

A premium on quality will be one of the secrets of success. At present good eggs bring about the same price as low-grade eggs, but under the co-operative plan payments will be made on quality basis.

RESOLUTIONS.

CULPEPPERS OPEN BIG REVIVAL HERE; TABERNACLE BUILT ON COURT SQUARE; LARGE CROWDS ATTEND ALL SERVICES

The big revival under the direction of the Culpeppers started on last Sunday morning and with each service interest grows. Despite the rain on Sunday at the morning service, and Sunday night the big tabernacle, which has been erected on the court house lawn was filled. It has been necessary to add more seats in order to take care of the crowd, which grows with each nights service.

The Culpepper party consists of Rev. John B. Culpepper, Sr., and his wife, Mr. Culpepper is an evangelist of some fifty odd years experience and although he is now seventy-five years of age, he is still quite active and speaks with such force that he is easily understood in all parts of the big tabernacle. He is a deep thinker and his sermons are all well founded on Bible questions, and make a deep impression on his hearers. Mrs. Culpepper is a devout Christian woman and takes a leading part in the work of the meeting.

Then John B. Culpepper, Jr. and his wife, are directors of the musical part of the meeting. Mr. Culpepper is a splendid singer and also possesses the gift of being able to make others sing. His wife can be found at the piano at all times and handles this part of the music in a very pleasing manner. Both of the younger Culpeppers also take leading parts in all work in connection with the revival.

A very interesting part of the campaign is the prayer meetings being held by the women of the town on Monday Wednesday and Friday afternoons of each week. The town has been divided into nine districts with a leader for each district. At these meetings Monday afternoon, despite the fact that it was raining, there was a total of 58 women present. These meetings are expected to grow in interest and attendance.

Special services for the boys and girls were held on Tuesday afternoon and will be continued at stated periods throughout the meeting. It is also being planned to have a meeting for the men only and also for the ladies only during the present week.

The Culpeppers are highly elated over the splendid cooperation they are receiving from the different denominations of the town. All forces have joined hands in making the chorus choir one of the largest ever seen in a meeting here, and in making this series of meetings one of great benefit to every Church and to every individual in the town.

Services are held regularly every morning at 10:00 o'clock and at night at 8:00 o'clock. A cordial welcome awaits every one who will come out to the meetings, and we feel sure that you will hear a message that will do you good. Come hear the Culpeppers.

We have been requested to ask those who drive around every one who will come out to the meetings, and we feel sure that you will hear a message that will do you good. Come hear the Culpeppers.

Mrs. O. Dowling and Miss Sallico Collier were visitors at Montgomery Tuesday.

Liberty News

The health of this community is very good at present. We are glad to say that Mrs. W. D. Foley and children are getting along fine. We hope there will be no bad results from the cat bites.

We are glad to have Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Dorrance and family in our midst again, also Mr. Homer Dorrance. Miss Ruth Wallace of Opelika and Miss Olga Boland of Atlanta, are visiting the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Boland.

Mr. J. T. Mayberry is visiting his home at Waverly, Ala. Messrs W. P. Foley, D. J. Dorrance, Noah Clark, Joe Smith, H. L. Boland and Miss Flossie and Tenie Boland visited Troy on the fourth. To say they were having a nice time there does not begin to tell it. The fiddler's convention was very fine. You know violin music is the very best of music. I wish every one could have been there.

The crops are doing fine. Early cotton is fruiting fine. It reminds us that we ought not be too late planting. Some say late planting saves a working, and I think it saves two pickings. Corn is doing fine and I see some of the best have been in some time. Now I noticed on the Troy-Elba road they have had too much rain. I don't think they can get over half a crop. Last year their crops were fine.

I notice the estimate shows more acreage than we had last year. It is a pity that the land was not sown in oats. Mr. Farmer sows some oats this fall. You get hay and grain all in one and they come in such a good time. Mr. Henry Moody says he does not know what he would do if it were not for his oats.

Now we come to the real issues of life, what we all should live for and stand for—the Church. We were very glad to have Prof. Kersh preach for us Sunday afternoon. Every one enjoyed his sermon so much. After preaching we had Sunday School. To our surprise, our former pastor, Rev. J. C. Phillips, stayed in just in time to teach the advanced class, as our teacher was absent. It was a real treat to have him with us and we were very glad to have Brother D. C. Marley in our class.

It was a treat to have Brother J. B. Culppepper, Jr., with us Saturday at eleven o'clock. It was real good to be there. So many good things in life for us. Just think of having J. B. Culppepper, Sr., in Elba. I cannot begin to tell you how proud I am to have that great man of God with us and I am proud that I had the privilege of hearing him last night. How fast time flies! It seems only a short time, forty years ago, when I heard him preach. Hope the meeting will do a great good.

H. L. Boland.

P. S.—The Culppeppers will preach at Liberty Church next Saturday night, July 12th.

It is too late to use sweetened poisons for boll weevils. Sweetened poison is recommended only for the pre-spraying applications. For all later spraying, only dry calcium arsenate is recommended by entomologists of the Agricultural College at Auburn, and also by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Hens Necessary.

Electricity has become a factor in the poultry business. It is said there is one hatchery in this country with a capacity of a million eggs, with electricity acting the setting hen's part. No power plant as yet has taken over the business of laying the egg. So the hen still has a little something to cackle over.

FARM BUREAU CAMPAIGN GOING NICELY; WEEVILS BEGIN TO DAMAGE NUMBERS OF COTTON FIELDS SERIOUSLY, SAYS AGENT

Last Monday week we started a campaign in Coffee County for members in the Farm Bureau. Messrs. Barton, Pearson, McGully, Mullins, and Fair from Montgomery office spent the greater part of last week in the country soliciting members in company with community leaders in each section.

A nice showing was made in increased membership and cotton marketing sign-up, and we are continuing the drive again this week. There are now 1000 members in the Farm Bureau. They have no trouble assisting their members in marketing most any farm commodity because they are a strong financial organization and money speaks in organizing a business.

It has been reported that there are two cases of typhoid fever in town. We do not know whether the cause could be attributed to the prevalence of weeds or not, but we do know that there is an unusually large crop of mosquitoes this summer. Every means should be employed now to destroy the breeding places of these pests.

It will not be a very big burden on any one to cut all weeds and grass about the premises and destroy all trash and waste matter, and this may be the means of saving a general epidemic of sickness.

Besides adding to the health conditions of the town, it will be in a great measure a beautiful sight to see the people of the town, join in this movement now, today, and have a general weed cutting and cleaning up around your place.

O'Neal Holds Two Mass Meetings in Coffee County.

Ed O'Neal, President of the Alabama Farm Bureau Federation, and Executive Committee of the American Farm Bureau Federation will speak to the farmers, merchants, bankers and everybody Thursday July 17 at Enterprise in the morning and Elba in the afternoon. We have mailed 3000 circulars to as many farmers as possible and meetings of Mr. O'Neal, and the writer did not know there were as many farmers in the county as there are until he began to try to put a circular in the hands of every farmer in the county. Mr. O'Neal is one of the best farmers in Alabama and has done more for the co-operation among farmers than any other farmer in the state. Mr. O'Neal has running invitations to speak to farmers in every state in the union on what Alabama farmers have accomplished through co-operative effort. We feel sure that a large crowd will attend his address.

WEVILS BEGIN TO DAMAGE NUMBERS OF Cotton Fields.

Up until last week we had seen very little serious damage from the weevils, but several fields visited in the past few days disclose the sad realities of weevil damage to a serious degree. When a lot of fresh squares punctured are in evidence, begin to poison and follow it up with three applications four days apart.

MR. BLOCKER ANNOUNCES FOR RE-ELECTION.

The Clipper today carries the announcement of Mr. E. F. Blocker, for re-election as Mayor of the Town of Elba. He is serving now in that capacity for the first term. During the term he has made a good record as the director of the town's affairs, and the administration has been one of the most successful in the history of the town.

Mr. Blocker has many friends who will be interested in his race for re-election.

Mrs. R. L. Cooper and little son, Bancroft, have returned from the hospital in Montgomery, and are at home to their friends. They were accompanied by Miss Julia Bancroft, who was their guest for the week-end.

Mr. P. J. Ham, of Jupiter, Fla., is spending a few days at Elba.

PEOPLE OF TOWN URGED TO CUT WEEDS.

The Clipper has been asked to urge the people of Elba to join in a movement to rid the town of weeds and other trash that has been allowed to accumulate in some places.

It has been reported that there are two cases of typhoid fever in town. We do not know whether the cause could be attributed to the prevalence of weeds or not, but we do know that there is an unusually large crop of mosquitoes this summer. Every means should be employed now to destroy the breeding places of these pests.

MR. BRUNSON ENTERTAINS FOR VISITOR.

A lovely courtesy was extended on Thursday afternoon of last week when Mrs. W. M. Brunson entertained, honoring her guest, Mrs. N. C. Roberts, of Mobile. The apartment was abloom with summer flowers, presenting an ideal setting. Bunting was played at four tables, on which were bon-bon dishes of candy and salted almonds.

Those sharing this courtesy with the honoree were: Messrs. Meyer, C. P. Lee, Dudley, Bernard, Willie Michel, Hendrix, Jeter, Vardie Wright, James English, Harris, Murphree, and Misses Annaloben Symonds, Lurline Ham, Sallie Page, Zedie Rowe, Louise Leibert, Mabel and Beatrice Brunson, Lillie and Vivian Harper.

CONTEST HEARING HAS BEEN PUT OFF FOR SEVERAL DAYS

As was stated in The Clipper last week, the hearing of the Eagerton-Kyser contest was postponed until Wednesday afternoon. The hearing continued until Friday, and was postponed at that time till this week.

Announcement is now made that the hearing has been postponed until next week or perhaps the next, no definite date having been set. During the time the hearing was in progress last week about one-fourth of the persons whose votes had been contested took the stand and offered evidence in regard to their eligibility as a voter. Figuring on this as a basis, several days will yet be consumed in the hearing, before the committee can come to any conclusion as to the matter.

PEANUT GROWERS.

Don't pick your peanuts on a machine that splits, cracks and leaves them full of trash, hay, stems and pods. If you cannot sell them for seed or shelling purposes.

Put your peanuts in first class commercial condition. In order to secure best prices pick them on a LILLISTON Peanut Picker. It thoroughly cleans the nuts and don't crack or burst them all to pieces. Ask your local peanut buyer or your neighbor who uses a Lilliston Picker about them. They last longer and repair bills are less.

Lilliston Peanut Pickers, guaranteed to be the best in the South, are sold by South-East Alabama by Coffey Mercantile Co., Enterprise; Malheur-Harris Motor Co., Dothan; C. D. Chapman & Co., Geneva; Bonneau-Jeter Hardware Co., Elba; Bryan-Faulk Motor Co., Season Ozark Motor & Tractor Co., Ozark; Pinckard Auto Co., Pinckard; J. S. Carroll Motor Co., Troy; A. E. MUCH INTEREST BEING MANIFESTED IN BIG REVIVAL; PRAYER MEETINGS WELL ATTENDED; WILL CONTINUE NEXT WEEK

Although the weather has been very bad for the past week, good crowds attend every service of the Culpepper Revival, and at many of the services the Gayles tabernacle is almost filled to capacity.

That the people of Elba are becoming more and more interested is evidenced by the large attendance at the different prayer meetings and the workers meeting. As was stated in last week's paper the town has been divided into districts for the Home movement, and looking after other matters connected with the order.

The Pythian Lodge here has not been very active for the past two or three years, but Mr. Clements, of Pinckard, Special Deputy from the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias, was here last week in the interest of the Pythian Home movement, and looking after other matters connected with the order.
